FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2025-12352 Attempted Kidnapping

Schertz, TX (3/6/2025) – On March 6, 2025, at approximately 4:13 p.m., the Schertz Police Department responded to a report of an alleged attempted kidnapping which had just occurred in the 1100 block of Oak Street. The alleged female victim, (16 years old), was walking home from school when she stopped at a convenience store and saw the male subject inside the store. The female stated the suspect spoke to her and asked why she was walking alone. The suspect then started chasing her and she called 9-1-1.

The Schertz Police Department immediately deployed personnel and resources and diligently worked with the local community members and the Guadalupe County Constables Office (Precinct 3) to develop leads and locate a person of interest. There is conflicting evidence with the alleged victim's story and thus this continues to be an active investigation, and no arrest was made. The police department would like to reassure the citizens of Schertz there appears to be no danger to our community.

The female was not injured and was taken to her residence by one of our patrol officers. If you have any information regarding this incident, please contact the Schertz Police Department at 210-619-1245.
